

New to This City

(Harry Bird)

old hand shakes in a neon glove!
i'm new to this city, new to this city a secret trumpet shy giddy'un in love!
i'm new to this city, new to this city

oh, i'm uneasy
but oh, you talk so freely and oh you've got friends on the door yeah you know the backstreets while i've never been here before acrobats bend backwards not to offend!

i'm new to this city, new to this city dyeing to fit it discolours skin!
i'm new to this city, new to this city

oh, you dance so nimble and oh, like you're invincible oh and me I feel like a fool yeah you're so at home here and i'm quite the welly in the swimming pool but still i've got big dreams that one day i'll step out singing hear ye, oh hear ye it's me!

and i'm news, big news in this city!
